Tradition-inspired, but ever-changing and often adventurous combinations of local produce in an authentic African farm setting.

Rule the roost Meet and join our farm staff as they go about their daily business of herding, feeding and caring for our farm animals and crops.

Social responsibility Responsible tourism has been a central concept to everything we do at BK since we started in 1997. Our values, ethos and mission statement all speak to the triple bottom line of responsible tourism: economic growth, environmental integrity and social justice.

Things to do Paddle, sup or surf out on the lake, or jump in for a refreshing swim in pure mountain water. Take off on a mountain bike or on a long hike and explore the nature reserve and the farmlands around BK. Join resident chef Louise Gillett in the kitchen or in the veld, or try your hand at fishing or archery ...

Around BK Bartholomeus Klip is located in the rural Swartland near Cape Town, near the scenic Cape Winelands. Within a short drive from the Farm, you may visit world-renowned wineries and restaurants, travel along mountain passes with breathtaking views, and visit local markets, art galleries or cultural events.
